

Respite is closed

The government has said all services must be closed for two weeks.

This means respite is closed.

If I feel upset about this I can talk to the staff or my family or friends.

